NARRATIVE:

Ronnie Brown has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include voluntary manslaughter, assault with a deadly weapon, kidnapping, battery with serious bodily injury, assault with a deadly weapon, credit card theft, petty theft, theft of personal property, multiple possession of controlled substance convictions and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 15 year term for kidnapping. Brown was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 5, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Brown qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of controlled substances is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
